These DAST Services may be changed, terminated entirely, and/or additional services may be added at DAST’s sole discretion.

2. CREATING AN DAST ACCOUNT.

2.1. Registration of DAST Account. In order to use the DAST Services, you will need to register for an DAST Account. During the account registration process, we will ask you for information, including your name and other personal information to verify your identity. You must provide complete and truthful information. We may, in our sole discretion, refuse to open an DAST Account for you and/or limit the number of DAST Accounts that you may hold.

2.2. Identity Verification. During registration of your DAST Account, you must provide the information we request for the purposes of identity verification (including KYC) and the detection of money laundering (AML), terrorist financing, fraud, or any other financial crime and also permit us to keep a record of such information, including signing on the DAST KYC/AML Policy and any documentation required thereunder. You will need to complete certain verification procedures before you are permitted to use the DAST Services. Your access and the limits that apply to your use of the DAST Services, may be altered as a result of information collected about you on an ongoing basis. The information we request may include certain personal information, including, but not limited to, your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, date of birth, taxpayer identification number, a government identification, and information regarding your bank account (such as the name of the bank, the account type, routing number, and account number). In providing us with this or any other information, you confirm that the information is accurate and authentic. You agree to notify us immediately if any of the information you provided changes. You authorize us to make inquiries, whether directly or through third parties that we consider necessary to verify your identity or protect you and/or us against fraud or other financial crime, and to take action we reasonably deem necessary based on the results of such inquiries. When we carry out these inquiries, you acknowledge and agree that your personal information may be disclosed to third party service providers, including payment processors for a credit reference, liquidity (currency) providers, fraud prevention or financial crime and other agencies and that these agencies may respond to our inquiries in full. This is an identity check only and should have no adverse effect on your credit rating. Additionally, we may require you to wait some amount of time after the completion of a transaction before permitting you to use further DAST Services and/or before permitting you to engage in transactions beyond certain volume limits.

3. HOSTED DIGITAL CURRENCY WALLET.

3.1. In General. Your Hosted Digital Currency Wallet enables you to store, track and manage supported Digital Currencies contained in your Hosted Digital Currency Wallet. Upon verification pursuant to our KYC/AML Policy, you will have the ability to request, send, receive, and store Digital Currency from third parties by giving instructions through the Website (each such transaction is a “Digital Currency Transaction”).

DAST reserves the right to refuse to process or to cancel any pending Digital Currency Transaction as required by law or in response to a subpoena, court order, or other government request or to enforce transaction limits as determined in its discretion. DAST cannot reverse a Digital Currency Transaction which has been submitted to a Digital Currency network. The Hosted Digital Currency Wallet services are available only in connection with those Digital Currencies that DAST, in its sole discretion, decides to support and it may change such support at any time. If you have any questions about which Digital Currencies DAST currently supports, please visit the Website. Under no circumstances should you attempt to use your Hosted Digital Currency Wallet services to store, send, request, or receive digital currencies in any form that is not supported by DAST assumes no responsibility or liability in connection with any attempt to use DAST Services for digital currencies that DAST does not support.

3.2. Digital Currency Transactions. DAST processes supported Digital Currency according to the instructions received from its users, but we do not guarantee the identity of any receiver, requestee or other party. You should verify all transaction information prior to submitting instructions to DAST. Once submitted to a Digital Currency network, a Digital Currency Transaction will be unconfirmed for a period of time pending sufficient confirmation of the transaction by the Digital Currency network. A transaction is not complete while it is in a pending state. Funds associated with transactions that are in a pending state will be designated accordingly and will not be included in your DAST Account balance or be available to conduct transactions (or withdrawals). DAST reserves the right to delay any Digital Currency Transaction if it perceives a risk of fraud or illegal activity.

3.3. Digital Currency Storage and Transmission Delays. DAST stores all Digital Currency private keys in a combination of online and offline storage. As a result, it may be necessary for DAST to retrieve certain information from offline storage in order to facilitate a Digital Currency Transaction in accordance with your instructions, which may delay the initiation or crediting of such Digital Currency Transaction, even though DAST will seek to initiate or carry out all transactions as soon as possible. You acknowledge and agree that a Digital Currency Transaction facilitated by DAST may be delayed, notwithstanding the efforts of DAST is not acting as a Custodian of currencies or funds and does not have a Custodian License.

3.4. Third Party Payments. DAST has no control over, or liability for, the delivery, quality, safety, legality or any other aspect of any goods or services that you may purchase or sell to or from a third party (including other users of DAST Services). DAST is not responsible for ensuring that a buyer or a seller you may transact with will actually complete the transaction or is authorized to do so. If you experience a problem with any goods or services purchased from, or sold to, a third party in connection with Digital Currency transferred using the DAST Services, or if you have a dispute with such third party, you must resolve the dispute directly with that third party. If you believe a third party has behaved in a fraudulent, misleading, or inappropriate manner, or if you cannot adequately resolve a dispute with a third party, you may notify DAST Support at the Website so that we may consider what action to take, if any.

3.5 Advanced Protocols. Unless specifically announced on the Website or through some other official public statement of DAST, we do not support metacoins, colored coins, side chains, or other derivative, enhanced, or forked protocols, tokens, or coins which supplement or interact with a Digital Currency supported by DAST (collectively, “Advanced Protocols”). Do not use your DAST Account to attempt to receive, request, send, store, or engage in any other type of transaction involving an Advanced Protocol. The DAST platform is not configured to detect and/or secure Advanced Protocol transactions and DAST assumes absolutely no responsibility whatsoever in respect to Advanced Protocols.

3.6 Operation of Digital Currency Protocols. DAST does not own or control the underlying software protocols which govern the operation of Digital Currencies supported on our platform. In general, the underlying protocols are open source and anyone can use, copy, modify, and distribute them. By using the DAST platform, you acknowledge and agree: (i) that DAST is not responsible for operation of the underlying protocols and that DAST makes no guarantee of their functionality, security, or availability; and (ii) that the underlying protocols are subject to sudden changes in operating rules (a/k/a “forks”) and that such forks may materially affect the value, function, and/ or even the name of the Digital Currency you store on the DAST platform. In the event of a fork, you agree that DAST may temporarily suspend DAST operations (with or without advance notice to you) and that DAST may, in its sole discretion, decide whether or not to support (or cease supporting) either branch of the forked protocol entirely. You acknowledge and agree that DAST assumes absolutely no responsibility whatsoever in respect of an unsupported branch of a forked protocol.

4. CONVERSION SERVICES AND FEES.

4.1. You authorize DAST to initiate debits from your selected payment method(s) in settlement of purchase and/or sale transactions. A Transaction Fee as defined in section 4.2 applies to all purchase and sale transactions. Although DAST will attempt to deliver supported Digital Currency to you as promptly as possible, funds may be debited from your selected payment method before Digital Currency is delivered to your DAST Account. We may debit your selected payment method, such as your bank account or credit card, as soon as the same day you initiate the purchase or sale but your payment may take longer to process. In the event that DAST is unable to fulfill your purchase or sale order, we will notify you and seek your approval to fulfill the purchase or sale order at the contemporaneous Quotation Price.

4.2. Each Conversion Service transaction is subject to a fee on top of the Quotation Price (a “Transaction Fee”), as well as other associated fees, commissions, bank charges, wire transfer charges, clearing house charges, network fees (miner fees), etc. (“Associated Fees”), all of which are payable by you. The applicable Transaction Fee is displayed to you on the Website prior to you completing a Conversion Service transaction. The availability of each payment method depends on a number of factors, including but not limited to your location, the identification information you have provided to us, and limitations imposed by third party payment processors.

DAST reserves the right to adjust its Transaction Fees and Associated Fees and any applicable waivers at any time. We will always notify you of the Transaction Fee which applies to your transaction when you authorize the transaction and in each receipt we issue to you.

You should be aware that in order to carry out purchases or sales of cryptocurrency, DAST carries out transactions with various third parties and liquidity providers of cryptocurrency, with whom it holds accounts including fiat accounts, cryptocurrency accounts and digital wallets on behalf of DAST and you hereby acknowledge and agree to the same and to your fiat currencies and cryptocurrencies being held by DAST in accounts with such third parties and liquidity providers.

You should also be aware that the quotation of cryptocurrency for sale or purchase which DAST receives from the liquidity providers of the cryptocurrency includes a spread or margin for DAST compared to the offer which DAST makes to you for the sale or purchase of the cryptocurrency.

You should also be aware that the quotation of cryptocurrency for sale or purchases presented to you as “market price” or otherwise as the quoted price for the specific cryptocurrency transaction during the sale or purchase on the Website includes, inter-alia, the liquidity provider fee and DAST’s charges for using the technology (the “Quotation Price”).

The Quotation Price may be calculated as a weighted price of a number of different buyers or sellers available within the platform, and/or of different liquidity providers, and there may be a time gap between the conversion order and the actual conversion that will affect the price displayed.

4.3. Deposits. In order to initiate any transaction to buy or sell Digital Currency, you must first of all maintain sufficient funds in your DAST Account, by way of depositing eDST and/or crypto currencies into your DAST Account, adequate to cover your desired transaction. The Digital Currency which you deposit shall be delivered into a custodial digital wallet belonging to the Company, and such deposits shall be recorded under your DAST Account. Fiat funds shall be deposited into an DAST bank account by way of either bank wire transfer or credit card processing, and once we receive the confirmation of your deposit, such deposit shall be recorded in eDST into your DAST Account.

When you choose to deposit eDST funds through credit card processing into your DAST Account, as the cardholder of your credit card, you declare and confirm that you shall always ensure that you comply with any and all applicable laws and regulations with respect to such holding of your credit card and your usage of the credit card.

4.4. Refund or Cancellation Policy. You cannot cancel, reverse, or change any transaction marked as complete or pending. If your payment is not successful or if your payment method has insufficient funds, you authorize DAST, in its sole discretion, either to cancel the transaction or to debit your other payment methods, including DAST balances or other linked accounts, in any amount necessary to complete the transaction. You are responsible for maintaining an adequate balance and/or sufficient credit limits in order to avoid overdraft, NSF, or similar fees charged by your payment provider. DAST reserves the right to refuse to process, or to cancel or reverse, any purchases or sales of Digital Currency in its sole discretion, even after funds have been debited from your account(s) for reasons which include, but are not limited to, technical error, market abuse or manipulation, or your failure to pass our KYC process and if: (i) DAST suspects the transaction involves (or has a high risk of involvement in) money laundering, terrorist financing, fraud, or any other type of financial crime; (ii) in response to a subpoena, court order, or other government order; (iii) DAST reasonably suspects that the transaction is erroneous; or (iv) DAST suspects the transaction relates to Prohibited Use or a Prohibited Business as set forth below. In such instances, DAST will reverse the transaction and we are under no obligation to allow you to reinstate a purchase or sale order at the same price or on the same terms as the cancelled transaction. Any refunds shall be at the sole discretion of DAST.

4.5. Withdrawals. At any point you may make a request for a withdrawal to withdraw funds from your DAST Account. The Company shall designate certain periods during the day at which the actual withdrawal can occur pursuant to your request and the Company's approval upon obtaining the necessary documentation. Upon such approval, the Company shall deliver the applicable Digital Currency to the personal digital wallet designated by you and declared to be owned by you exclusively and which is under your sole and full control, and you acknowledge that any delivery of Digital Currency may not be immediate or may be subject to delays. Following a withdrawal request for fiat funds we may either credit your credit card, using the details you provided, or initiate a bank transfer to the bank account through which you have deposited the funds, all according to our compliance policies and banking requirements. All of your withdrawals and financial activity on the DAST platform will be recorded under your DAST Account.

Please consider that we take up to three (3) business days to process your withdrawal request. Withdrawals may take up to five (5) business days to reach your credit card or bank account.

4.6. Payment Services Partners ("PSP"). DAST may use a third-party payment processor to process any US Dollar (or other fiat currency) payment between you and DAST, including but not limited to payments in relation to your use of the Conversion Service.

DAST cannot guarantee that all credit cards will be accepted by the PSP. The acceptability of your credit card depends on various factors such as, your location, your identification information, limitations imposed by your credit card provider and/or by the third-party payment processors. Likewise, DAST cannot guarantee that your bank will accept the funds received from your DAST Account. It is your responsibility to ensure that your credit card provider or bank will accept your funds. You also acknowledge that the availability of all payment methods – bank transfer and credit card – is not guaranteed, and we may change the payment methods from time to time at our sole discretion.

You hereby consent that DAST will provide certain information and/or documentation about you to the PSP, as may be required to complete a transaction.

With regard to any deposits in fiat, you further agree not to make or attempt to initiate chargebacks, and/or deny or reverse any deposit that you have made. In any such event, we reserve the right to cease to provide you with the DAST Services, terminate this Agreement, and take any further action we may deem appropriate, including the right to adjust your DAST Account to reflect any deduction from any balance in the deposit to set-off any loss suffered due to your chargeback or reversal of transactions.

5. GENERAL USE, PROHIBITED USE, AND TERMINATION.

5.1. Limited License. 5.2. Website Accuracy. Although we intend to provide accurate and timely information on the Website, the Website (including, without limitation, the Content) may not always be entirely accurate, complete or current and may also include technical inaccuracies or typographical errors. In an effort to continue to provide you with complete and accurate information, information may be changed or updated from time to time without notice, including without limitation information regarding our policies, products and services. Accordingly, you should verify all information and not rely on it. All decisions based on information contained on the Website are your sole responsibility and we shall have no liability for such decisions. Links to third-party materials (including, without limitation, other websites) may be provided as a convenience but are not controlled by us. You acknowledge and agree that we are not responsible for any aspect of the information, content, or services contained in any third-party materials or on any third-party sites accessible or linked to the Website.

5.3. Third-Party Applications. If, to the extent permitted by DAST from time to time, you grant express permission to a third party to access or connect to your DAST Account, either through the third party's product or service or through the Website, you acknowledge that granting permission to a third party to take specific actions on your behalf does not relieve you of any of your obligations under this Agreement. Additionally, you are fully responsible for all acts or omissions of any third party accessing your DAST Account. Further, you acknowledge and agree that you will not hold DAST responsible for, and you will hold DAST harmless and indemnify DAST from, any and all liability, costs, claims or damages arising out of or related to any act or omission of any third party with access to your DAST Account. You may change or remove permissions granted by you to third parties with respect to your DAST Account at any time through the Account Settings (Integrations) page on the Website.

5.4. Prohibited Use. In connection with your use of the DAST Services, you agree and represent you will not engage in any Prohibited Business or Prohibited Use defined herein. We reserve the right at all times to monitor, review, retain and/or disclose any information as necessary to satisfy any applicable law, regulation, sanctions programs, legal process or governmental request. We reserve the right to cancel and/or suspend your DAST Account and/or block transactions or freeze funds immediately and without notice if we determine, in our sole discretion, that your DAST Account is associated with a Prohibited Use and/or a Prohibited Business.

5.5. Transactions Limits. The use of all DAST Services is subject to a limit on the amount of volume, stated in U.S. Dollar terms, you may transact or transfer in a given period (e.g., daily). To view your limits, login to your DAST Account and visit the Website. Your transaction limits may vary depending on your payment method, verification steps you have completed, and other factors. DAST reserves the right to change applicable limits as we deem necessary in our sole discretion. If you wish to raise your limits beyond the posted amounts, you may submit a request at the Website. We may require you to submit additional information about yourself or your business, provide records, and arrange for meetings with DAST staff (such process is referred to as the “Enhanced Due Diligence”). DAST reserves the right to charge you for its costs and fees associated with Enhanced Due Diligence, provided that we notify you in advance. In our sole discretion, we may refuse to raise your limits or we may lower your limits at a subsequent time even if you have completed Enhanced Due Diligence and paid for the costs and fees.

5.6. Suspension, Termination, and Cancellation. DAST may: (a) suspend, restrict, or terminate your access to any or all of the DAST Services; and/or (b) deactivate or cancel your DAST Account on the occurrence of any one or more of the following:

- We are so required by a subpoena, court order, or order of a government authority; or
- We suspect you of using your DAST Account in connection with a Prohibited Use or Business; or
- Use of your DAST Account is subject to any pending litigation, investigation, or government proceeding and/or we perceive a heightened risk of legal or regulatory non-compliance associated with your Account activity; or
- Our service partners are unable to support your use; or
- You take any action that DAST deems as circumventing DAST's controls, including, but not limited to, opening multiple DAST Accounts or abusing promotions which DAST may offer from time to time; or
- You breach any one or more of our policies referred to on the Website such as KYC/AML, Privacy Policy, etc.; or
- You carry out any unlawful or illegal activity; or
- You are in breach of any material provisions of these Terms; or
- You are in breach of any money laundering regulations or KYC requirements.

If DAST suspends or closes your account for any reason, we will provide you with notice of our actions unless a court order or other legal process prohibits DAST from providing you with such notice. You acknowledge that DAST's decision to take certain actions, including limiting access to, suspending, or closing your account, may be based on confidential criteria that are essential to DAST's risk management and security protocols. You agree that DAST is under no obligation to disclose the details of its risk management and security procedures to you.

You will be permitted to transfer Digital Currency or funds associated with your Hosted Digital Currency Wallet(s) for ninety (90) days after Account deactivation or cancellation unless such transfer is otherwise prohibited: (i) under the law, including but not limited to applicable sanctions programs; or (ii) by a subpoena or court order. You may close your DAST Account at any time and will not be charged for closing your DAST Account, however, you will be required to pay any outstanding amounts owed to DAST. You authorize us to cancel or suspend any pending transactions at the time of closing.

If and when DAST Services resume, you acknowledge that token valuations and exchange rates may differ significantly from the valuations and rates prior to such event.

If you are a consumer, then you acknowledge that the right of withdrawal is not applicable to you as the price for the DAST Services is dependent upon fluctuations in the financial market which cannot be controlled by DAST and which may occur within the withdrawal period.

5.7. Relationship of the Parties. DAST is an independent contractor for all purposes. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed or is intended to be deemed, nor shall it cause you and DAST to be treated as partners, joint venturers, or otherwise as joint associates for profit, employer/employee or either you or DAST to be treated as the agent of the other.

5.8. Privacy of Others; Marketing. If you receive information about another user through the DAST Services, you must keep the information confidential. You may not disclose or distribute a user's information to a third party or use the information unless you receive the user's express consent to do so. You may not send unsolicited email to a user through the DAST Services.

5.9. Password Security; Contact Information. You are responsible for maintaining adequate security and control of any and all IDs, passwords, hints, personal identification numbers (PINs), API keys or any other codes that you use to access the DAST Services. Any loss or compromise of the foregoing information and/or your personal information may result in unauthorized access to your DAST Account by third-parties and the loss or theft of any Digital Currency and/or funds held in your DAST Account and any associated accounts, including your linked bank account(s) and credit card(s). You are responsible for keeping your email address and telephone number up to date in your Account Profile in order to receive any notices or alerts that we may send you. We assume no responsibility for any loss that you may sustain due to your failure to keep them up to date or to the compromise of account login credentials and/or your failure to follow or act on any notices or alerts that we may send to you. In the event you believe your DAST Account information has been compromised, please contact DAST Support immediately at support@edst.io.

5.10. Compliance with Laws; Taxes. Your transaction history is available through your DAST Account.

5.11. Unclaimed Property. If DAST is holding funds in your account and DAST is unable to contact you and has no record of your use of the DAST Services for more than six (6) months or a longer period, applicable law may require DAST to report these funds as unclaimed property to the applicable jurisdiction. If this occurs, DAST will try to locate you at the address shown in our records, but if DAST is unable to locate you, it may be required to deliver any such funds to the applicable state or jurisdiction as unclaimed property. You are aware of this and agree to the same. DAST reserves the right to deduct a monthly dormancy fee of EUR 10 per month or equivalent in digital currency after six (6) months and/or other administrative charges from such unclaimed funds, as permitted by applicable law.

In the event that the Customer is deceased, the Company will require the production of a Succession Order/Certificate or a Grant of Probate in accordance with applicable law.
